Other activities

CEO & Chairman Eilers Law Group Eilers Law Group, P.A. is a securities law firm with a focus on mergers and acquisitions. We specialize in SEC compliance and securities transactions, both private and public. We represent both companies and investors as they try to maximize their goals. At the Eilers Law Group, we provide traditional legal services that are not restricted by the confines of a brick and mortar building. This provides the client with direct access to their attorney from anywhere they may be. Because we use the internet as a tool and not a service, we do not sacrifice client confidence to achieve our goals. Instead we provide a large array of tools to help our clients feel comfortable and confident that they are receive quality, secure legal services from attorneys dedicated to their needs.

Mr. Eilers also works closely with management of publicly traded companies, maintaining SEC and alternative reporting compliance, including corporate actions under FINRA and DTC compliance as well as start ups looking for “going public” transactions through IPOs, mergers and other alternative public offerings.
